DEPARTMENT UPDATES:

Fire Chief Cline reported the cell company surveyed the land for the cell tower last week. Cline reported that the department purchased new F-500 fire fighting foam that is fluorine free and biodegradable. The pumps for that foam need to be drained and cleaned and the firefighters need to be trained before the foam is put in service on April 1st.

Cline told the board that there would be additional staff on duty in preparation for this weekend's snowstorm. Cline reported multiple accidents over the last 2 weeks.

Zoning- Zoning Inspector Schulz reported the Trustees will have a hearing on the amendment to the S.U. district of South Point Church and the re-zoning on St. Rt. 104 at their February 5th Regular meeting. Both have been approved by the Zoning Commission at their January 20th meeting and the Planning Commission.

Roads: Jahn read the road report. Hudson and Callahan have been doing repairs and maintenance on the trucks. The repairs on the new F-550 have not been completed, but it will be returned to the township to use to plow snow until the repairs are completed. There has been 1 snow event since the last meeting. The salt stockpile is getting short, but there is none available.

Hudson and Callahan also stockpiled 6 ton of cold mix, did berming, and picked up 1250 gallons of salt brine and beet juice.

Cemetery: Hudson and Callahan picked up concrete blanks to set veteran markers and there were 2 internments since the last meeting.
